PRAISE SCRIPTURE:

Psalm 103:1-12

1 Praise the Lord, my soul; all my inmost being, praise his holy name. 2 Praise the Lord, my soul, and forget not all his benefits—3 who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases, 4 who redeems your life from the pit and crowns you with love and compassion, 5 who satisfies your desires with good things so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's. 6 The Lord works righteousness and justice for all the oppressed. 7 He made known his ways to Moses, his deeds to the people of Israel: 8

The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love. 9 He will not always accuse, nor will he harbor his anger forever; 10 he does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities. 11 For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his love for those who fear him; 12 as far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us.

READING OF THE WEEK:

We are living in a missionary age. The missionary movement has grown to awaken hope and ignite enthusiasm in the coldest and most lifeless people. The danger, however, is that the missionary movement will move ahead of the missionary Spirit. This has always been the danger of the church: losing the substance in the shade, losing the Spirit, and being satisfied with proclaiming the movement, but not putting the Spirit in the movement.

I hear the Savior say,

"Thy strength indeed is small,

Child of weakness, watch and pray,

Find in Me thine all in all."

Refrain

Jesus paid it all,

All to Him I owe;

Sin had left a crimson stain,

He washed it white as snow.

Lord, now indeed I find

Thy pow'r and Thine alone,

Can change the leper's spots

And melt the heart of stone.

Refrain

(Turn Page)

And when, before the throne,

I stand in Him complete,

"Jesus died my soul to save,"

My lips shall still repeat.

Jesus paid it all,

All to Him I owe;

Sin had left a crimson stain,

He washed it white as snow.

I turn my face t'wards You, my heart is open
You're always pursuing, and my life's surrendered
You have my affection

Chorus

So let my life be worship
And let my heart stay true
May my love never grow cold
May it burn forevermore
Let my life be worship to You

Ahh, ahh, ahh

In blessing in sorrow in the ordinary
Whatever the cost is, You're always worthy
My heart's cry and my whole life is for Your glory
You have my attention
